Puuloa Church is Dedicated to God.

CONTRIBUTIONS WERE GENEROUS

A Deficit of $170 Raised Before the Consecration—Liliuokalani Present.

The dedication of Puuloa church near Pearl Harbor, took place yesterday. Queen Liliuokalani being among those present from Honolulu. More than 200 people, mostly natives who live in the neighborhood, were in attendance and dedicated the little church to God. Rev. Mr. Timoteo, the native clergyman, delivered the dedicatory sermon, followed by Rev. O. P. Emerson, who offered the invocation. The services were concluded by the serving of a luncheon, in which both the visiting townsfolk and the natives participated.

Puuloa is a little village on the eastern side of the mouth of Pearl Harbor, where native fishermen reside, earning their living by selling their catches in Honolulu. It is about two miles and a half from the little Puuloa station to where the natives live, a very quiet place, directly facing the ocean and close by the entrance to Pearl Harbor.

Sometime ago Hon. Henry Waterhouse spoke of building a little church there for the people, who ordinarily had to travel many miles to attend services. To start the work he gave $100. With this the members made plans for building the structure, succeeded in collecting $223.00. They built the church, and when completed, found it had cost $393.50, leaving a deficit of $170.53, which was a large amount to collect from the poor people of that district.

Yesterday a large gathering of townspeople and some from Ewa came to see the church dedicated. Shortly before 11 o'clock Queen Liliuokalani arrived there in her own carriage, and soon after those who came on the train from town arrived in busses.

The exercises were very interesting. The Puuloa choir opened with a hymn, which was very creditably rendered. After the singing Rev. O. P. Emerson offered a few words of prayer. Then the choir and the congregation all united in singing a hymn appropriate for the occasion. Next was the reading of the committee's report, which showed that they were $170.53 in debt for the completion of the building. Rev. E. S. Timoteo, pastor of the Kaunakakai church, read the Scriptures and offered a prayer. Then came the offerings.

Rev. Timoteo called the attention of those present to the $170.53 left unpaid, and said that he did not feel that it was best for him and those present to dedicate the house of God when it was not all paid for and was not wholly theirs. On hearing this those present gave as much as they could afford. Much credit is due the Queen, Mrs. Ahrens, Mrs. Paris, Mrs. Richardson, Theo. Richards, O. P. Emerson and others for helping pay this deficit. The whole amount was contributed, and a little more, by the few that were there with means.

The Puuloa choir followed by singing a very appropriate hymn. Much credit is due their leader for the patience he has shown in teaching such difficult pieces of music. The music was well rendered, and the choir compares favorably with those in other native churches.

Rev. E. S. Timoteo then delivered his dedicatory address. He spoke of the necessity of building a little church for those there who wanted to worship God. Not everyone could build a temple to God. David wanted to build the temple at Jerusalem, but God chose Solomon to finish the work. It was well to find a place where people could worship God. "The people of Puuloa have traveled miles to do this, and they have a Zion of their own close by, and what they ought to do is to fill the church every Sunday with those desirous of communing with Jehovah, the king of kings. You must not keep him inside and stay on the outside, but must do your part. It took a head carpenter with a few other carpenters to build the church. Christ is the head carpenter for souls and we are the helpers. If we want to make our bodies temples of God we must ask Him to come and build and He can do it."

The congregation listened attentively to the sermon, and all were pleased with the words of cheer. Rev. J. M. Ezera then offered a few words of prayer.

By this time everyone was hungry and longing for the many nice things awaiting them. They all came to the big tables, which were loaded with the best of Hawaiian dishes. A special place was reserved for the Queen and her party, and all did justice to the feast. Everyone ate heartily, and enough was left over to feed a hundred more.

Among those present were: Queen Liliuokalani, Mrs. Ahrens, Mrs. Olds, Mrs. Paris, Mrs. Richardson, Miss Rose Kankaha, Mrs. Pa. Mrs. Rice, Mrs. Capt. Pederson, Misses Katy Sullivan, Hattie Defties, Jennie Jones, Rev. and Mrs. E. S. Timoteo, Theo. Richards, Rev. O. P. Emerson, Rev. J. M. Ezera, Henry Meemano, B. S. Kapu, Jas. Hakuole, Isaac Harbottle, John Bickerton, William Kapu, D. Kane-wanui and Wm. Laa.

The natives appreciated the presence of the Queen, who came so many miles to show her interest in the good work being done amongst them. Her presence was a great source of inspiration to the Hawaiians.

Fishing on Puna Coast.

The few fishing trips made to the Puna coast under the direction of white men indicate that fish of a superior quality may be landed in Hilo and sold at about one-half the prevailing price. These men who do not make fishing a business have not confined themselves to the bay, nor to the waters north of town; they took a different course, and with satisfactory results. A good vapor launch and say three or four good fishing boats equipped with tackle and bait, and a half dozen or more experienced men would be the nucleus of a fishing company that would not only earn money, but would provide the public with a necessary article of diet at a reasonable cost.—Hilo Herald.

KOHALA-HILO.

H. B. Gehr and Party Again in Hawaiian Field.

The Kinau last week brought to Hilo H. B. and A. C. Gehr, E. C. Mellor and M. F. Goss, gentlemen connected with the Kohala-Hilo railway scheme. H. B. Gehr was seen by a reporter for the Herald, and asked regarding the prospects of the promoters, and said:

"I have been at work constantly since I left here and have accomplished considerable. I found on my return to Chicago that influence from a quarter we did not expect had been brought to bear on men who were interested in having the road built. It appears that some people here in Hilo do not want to see the road in operation, but in spite of that it will go through, and unless greater obstacles are thrown across our path the construction will begin soon. I do not care to say much for publication, for the reason that much has been said in the past that has not turned out to be true, and rather than make any promises I prefer to let the public await developments. Some changes have to be made in the survey at the other end of the line, and to do it I am sending a corps of engineers out tomorrow.

"The construction of the Hilo line along the beach will in no way interfere with us, nor do we propose to interfere with them; there is ample room for four tracks if necessary. There is only one place on that part of the line that will be inconvenient for both of us. I suggested to Mr. Thurston eighteen months ago that it would be better for his company if they had a depot at Walaue street, and I am glad to see that they are going ahead. Some of the reports I have heard regarding the railway since my return have been amusing, and as so much more is known by the public than we know ourselves regarding the business, I think it best to say nothing rather than interfere with any plans the public has made. Had it not been for the opposition from the islands our men would have been at work on construction three months ago. We realize the importance of the road to Hilo people are naturally surprised that opposition should come from here."—Hilo Herald.

L. W. MERRILL IS SOUGHT FOR

Collector is Charged With Embezzlement by Administrator of Hutchings Estate.

L. W. Merrill, the erstwhile collector of bad bills, is charged in a warrant sworn to by F. L. Waldron, manager of the grocery department of T. H. Davies & Co., with having embezzled the sum of $40, alleged to be due the Hutchings estate. In the warrant it is stated that this amount was collected in February, but that the complainant, who is administrator of the Hutchings estate, has been unable to collect from his collector.

The exact whereabouts of Merrill are not known, although it is believed he left for the Coast on a steamer or sailing vessel during the week. Some of his friends say he will return in a month.

Mr. Waldron once before swore to a warrant charging Merrill with embezzlement, on the day it was issued Merrill made his peace with the administrator, and the warrant was returned to the deputy sheriff's office, unserved. Merrill at that time pleaded to have his name kept out of the newspapers.

Merrill seems to be at loggerheads with other persons and firms who entrusted him bills for collection. He was arrested last fall for assaulting a Chinese for not paying over a certain sum of money, and was fined. Prior to that he was sued by a woman living at Ewa, who claimed Merrill had borrowed $250 from her and neglected to pay it back. This was promptly settled out of court.

MRS. MARY GREGOVICH

Of Phillipsburg, Montana, Tells How She Was Cured of Dandruff.

Mrs. Mary Gregovich, of Phillipsburg, Montana, under date of Nov. 26, 1893, writes: "I had typhoid fever this summer, consequently was losing my hair terribly, and my head in places was perfectly bald. Newbro's Herpicide had just come into use in Phillipsburg and the doctor strongly recommended it to me. After three or four applications my hair stopped falling out and is coming in again quite thick. I used to be troubled greatly with dandruff, of which I am now quite cured." Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide.

SCIATIC RHEUMATISM CURED AFTER FOURTEEN YEARS OF SUFFERING.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh Edgar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around, but constantly suffered. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Ltd., wholesale agents.
